NNLSO Application Form: Annual Meeting First Time Attendee

The National Network of Law School Officers (NNLSO) is committed to professional development of its members. NNLSO has grants available to encourage attendance to the annual NNLSO meeting held in conjunction with the AACRAO annual conference. NNLSO First Time Attendee Grants are awarded to offset the cost to the institution and will be presented to active members who have never attended an annual meeting.

Applicants are asked to complete and submit this application form to the address below along with an explanation as to why you are requesting the grant with reasons why you should be selected. A letter from your Dean supporting this application must also be included.

The documents can also be submitted electronically to Jerri_Cunningham@baylor.edu.
